

Ghana Navy

© Ary Boender / Utility DXers Forum
Last update: 12 May 2017
www.udxf.nl

Country name: Republic of Ghana (Ghana)

Former name: Gold Coast

Capital: Accra

10 Regions: Ashanti, Brong-Ahafo, Central, Eastern, Greater Accra, Northern, Upper East, Upper West, Volta, Western

Military branches: Ghana Army, Ghana Navy, Ghana Air Force

The Ghana Navy command structure consists of the Naval Headquarters at Burma Camp, Accra. There are two operational commands, the Western Naval Command at Sekondi and the Eastern Naval Command at Tema.

Western Naval Command

- HQ Western Naval Command
- Ghana Navy Fleet
- The Naval Dockyard Complex
- Ghana Navy Stores Depot
- Naval Base, Sekondi - West Command
- The Naval Trade Training School

Eastern Naval Command

- HQ Eastern Naval Command
- Basic and Leadership Training School
- Naval Base, Tema
- Ghana Navy Band

Departments

- Operations
- Administration
- Training
- Logistics (Supply)
- Technical
- Intelligence and
- Research and Development

Patrol vessels

P28 GNS Achimota
P29 GNS Yogaga
P30 GNS Anzone
P31 GNS Bonsu
P33 GNS Stephen Otu

Patrol vessels

P34 GNS Blika
P35 GNS Garinga
P36 GNS Chemle
P37 GNS Ehwor
GNS David Hansen

Fast Attack Craft

P27 GNS Sebo
GNS Dzata
GNS Yaa Asantewaa
GNS Naa Gbewaa

Frequency:

11347 kHz

Mode:

MIL-STD-188-141A/USB

ALE id:

BLIKA GNS P34 Blika

P36 GNS P36 Chemle

9GQK GNS P37 Ehwor

You may sometimes hear the vessels on HF when the Ghana Navy is conducting anti-piracy and convoy-escorting activities. The ALE id's used are either the name of the vessel, the pennant or callsign.

Sources / related websites

Wikipedia

Ghana Ministry of Defense http://www.mod.gov.gh/ghana_navy.html

Ghana Navy <http://navy.mil.gh>

Afrique Défense <http://afrique-defense.blogspot.nl>

World Maritime News <http://worldmaritimeneews.com>

Utility DXers Forum <http://udxf.nl>

CIA World Factbook