The Guardia Civil is a police organization under the Ministry of Interior and is overseen by the Directorate-General of the Police and the Civil Guard

Its tasks include highway patrol, protection of the Royal Family and the King of Spain, military police, counter drugs operations, anti-smuggling operations, customs and ports of entry control, Airport Security, safety of prisons and safeguarding of prisoners, weapons licenses and arms control, security of border areas, bomb squad and explosives, security in rural areas, anti-terrorism, coast guard, police deployments abroad (embassies), intelligence and counter-intelligence gathering, cyber- and internet crime, etc.

The organization consists of the following territorial units:

- Regional Headquarters (Zonas): The zonas are the command units responsible for the command, coordination and inspection of all existing Guardia Civil services in a specific region.
- Provincial Headquarters (Comandancias): The Comandancias are responsible for the control, planning, execution, management and coordination of the Guardia Civil services at the provincial level or , in the case of Ceuta and Melilla, the municipal boundaries
- Companies (Compañías): The Compañías (usually located at the headquarters of the counties) are responsible for the services in their districts.
- Stations (Puestos): The Puestos are the smallest units and operate in small areas.
